“Employee(s)” shall refer to any persons defined and covered by this Agreement. Employees are entitled to all rights and benefits of this Agreement unless otherwise specified in this Agreement.

“Union representative(s)” shall refer to any employee duly authorized by the Union. The term shall refer to employees who are elected, appointed or who volunteer to fill Union positions that represent the First Nations University of Canada, Canadian Union of Public Employees group of employees on committees, as Stewards or on the CUPE 1975 - 01 Executive Board.

“Employer” shall refer to the First Nations University of Canada.

ARTICLE 1 -- PREAMBLE

1.1 Working Agreement

The parties to this Collective Agreement (herein after referred to as the “Agreement”) recognize that the First Nations University of Canada (formerly known as the Saskatchewan Indian Federated College) is a unique, First Nations-controlled educational institution whose objectives include service to First Nations communities and the promotion, preservation, protection and interpretation of First Nations histories, languages, cultures and artistic heritages using First Nations and non-First Nations ways of knowing and understanding. As well, the First Nations University of Canada is founded upon and operates with the guidance and blessing of First Nations Elders.

The First Nations University of Canada embodies the values and aspirations of First Nations people to achieve education of quality within a uniquely First Nations environment and seeks to promote, for all members of the University family, the development of spirit, body, mind and sense of community.

The parties to this Agreement agree to work together toward these goals to promote harmonious relations and to settle misunderstandings and disagreements peacefully in the spirit of the traditional First Nations values of tolerance, humility, mutual respect and sharing.

1.2 Terms and Conditions

This Agreement sets forth the terms and conditions governing First Nations University of Canada (hereinafter referred to as the “employer”) employees represented by the Canadian Union of Public Employees (CUPE) (hereinafter referred to as the “Union”) and is binding upon the parties to this Agreement.

Both parties agree to:

- a) affirm the principle of First Nations jurisdiction over the University; and
- b) support and encourage the rights of First Nations to exercise their inherent right to govern their own affairs.

1.3 Previous Provisions

Nothing in this Agreement shall affect any provisions or concessions in existence at the time of signing this Agreement, which are more favourable to employees than those contained in this Agreement.

1.4 Conflicting Laws

If any provision of this Agreement or of any agreement made in pursuance thereof is found to be contrary to the provisions of any law, now or hereafter enacted, this Agreement will not be abrogated but will be subject to such amendments as may be necessary to bring it into conformity with the law.

1.5 Employer Rights

All the functions, rights, powers and authority, which the employer has not specifically abridged, delegated or modified by this Agreement, are recognized by the Union as being retained by the employer.

The employer shall exercise this right in a manner that is fair, non-arbitrary and reasonable.

ARTICLE 2 -- RECOGNITION

2.6.3 Meeting Requests

At the request of either party, the Committee shall meet within fifteen (15) calendar days at a time and place fixed by mutual agreement. The request must include the reason(s) for the meeting.

2.6.4 Non-Action Grievable

Failure on the part of the employer to complete an action agreed upon in meeting and in a timely manner, shall be grievable.

2.6.5 Implementation of Awards

In addition to the foregoing, the implementation of arbitration awards and final court decisions relating thereto will be discussed at the request of either party.

2.6.6 Exchange of Information

The employer and the Union agree to exchange at the request of either party, information that is not confidential, is readily available and pertains to a matter under discussion between the parties.

All correspondence between the employer and an employee shall be copied to the Union.

Every new employee whose employment commences hereafter shall, within 30 days after commencing employment, apply for and maintain membership in the Union and maintain membership in the Union as a condition of employment, provided that any employee in the bargaining unit who is not required to maintain membership or apply for and maintain membership in the Union shall, as a condition of employment, tender to the Union the periodic dues uniformly required to be paid by the members of the Union.

4.2.2 Provision for Exclusion

An employee may be excluded from the provisions of Article 4.2.1 if the employee objects to joining or belonging to a trade Union as a matter of conscience, religious training or religious belief. In such case, the employee shall pay an amount equal to Union dues to a charity mutually agreed by the employee and CUPE Local 1975-01. If there is a dispute concerning an employee objection, such dispute shall be referred to the Labour Relations Board in accordance with Section 5 (1) of the Trade Union Act.

4.3 New Employees

The employer shall inform each new member of the bargaining unit of the provisions of Article 4.1 not later than 30 days after the employee's date of appointment, and at the same time, provide the member of the bargaining unit with a paper copy of the Agreement.

4.4 Visit to the Union Office - New Employees

Each new employee will be given the opportunity during the first month of employment, within regular working hours, of visiting the Union Office or meeting with a Steward for the purpose of joining the Union and becoming acquainted with the rights and responsibilities of membership. Such absence from the work place will be reasonably brief and taken at a time convenient to both the employee and the supervisor.

4.5 Employee Information

4.5.1 Reporting to the Union

The employer shall provide the Union with a copy of the Letter of Offer (or revision thereof) of any newly hired employee or the revised Letter of Offer of any current employee within fifteen (15) days of receipt of the signed Letter of Offer. This Letter of Offer will include the employee's status, position, pay grade and salary.

4.5.2 Employee Lists

Each month, the employer shall make available to the Union a list of all employees in the bargaining unit.

The list shall include the following:

- position title;
- pay grade;
- department;
- date of first appointment to a bargaining unit position;
- date appointed to current position;

There shall be only one official file for each employee and it shall be located in the Human Resources Department. The file shall contain only material pertinent to the employee's employment. It shall not contain anonymous material. The employee may add a signed and dated response to any document contained therein.

An employee (or other person with written permission from the employee) shall have the right to examine the official file at any time during regular office hours mutually agreeable to the employee and the Human Resources Department in the company of a human resources employee. The employee may be accompanied, if desired, by a Steward or Union representative of the employee's choosing.

An employee (or other person with written permission from the employee) shall be provided with a copy of a reasonable number of documents in the file.

The employee's supervisor may have a working file of material destined for the official file and it shall be subject to the same provisions as the official file.

The file shall contain only material pertinent to the employee's financial affairs with the University. An employee shall have the right to examine records in their payroll file on the same terms and conditions as enumerated above for the official file.

ARTICLE 5 -- HARASSMENT/EMPLOYMENT EQUITY

The employer is committed to maintaining a mutually agreed upon policy that will prohibit harassment and ensures that all members of the University's community have the right to participate equally in activities at the University without fear of harassment and providing an environment which affirms and promotes First Nations cultures and values, and the dignity of human beings of diverse backgrounds and needs.

The parties agree that, along with the agreed upon "Promoting Positive Human Relations: Policy to Prevent Harassment & Discrimination" (approval date November 19, 2001 - SCHEDULE B), CUPE members shall be given the opportunity to grieve after the appeal processes laid out in SCHEDULE B.

5.2 Employment Equity

The parties agree that there are legitimate reasons why the emphasis on employment and training opportunities for Canadian First Nations people is necessary to ensure a strong First Nations presence within the University.

The parties recognize the employment equity exemption granted the University by the Human Rights Commission and agree that hiring consistent with this exemption does not contravene this Agreement. When recruiting new employees, the employer shall ensure that all advertisements reflect the employer's commitment to the hiring of Canadian First Nations and employment equity.

ARTICLE 6 -- MECHANISMS FOR DISPUTE RESOLUTION

The time limits imposed by the following provisions may be waived by written agreement between the employer and the Union.

6.1 Handling Differences

Whenever a difference shall arise between the parties hereto or any person bound by this Agreement concerning its interpretation, application, operation or alleged violation, the difference shall be dealt with in accordance with the processes herein outlined.

Any processes prescribed in this Agreement, which contain a different dispute resolution process binding on both parties than what is contained in Article 6, shall be governed by that process.

6.2 Stage 1 - Informal Process

Before a grievance is filed, an attempt will be made to settle the issue by informal discussion. An employee may, where appropriate, present a verbal complaint to the Human Resources Department as soon as the grounds for the complaint are known. A Steward may accompany the employee to the meeting. If the matter is not satisfactorily resolved, it may be referred to the Union to pursue the appropriate formal grievance process outlined herein.

6.3 Stage 2 - Formal Grievance Process

The Steward shall refer the written grievance signed by both the Steward representing the employee(s) concerned and the employee(s), where applicable, to the Human Resources Department. The written grievance will include details of the incident in dispute, which article(s) of the Agreement has allegedly been violated, and a recommended remedy(s) to correct the alleged violation. In order to be accepted, the written grievance must reach the Human Resources Department within thirty (30) calendar days of the incident that is the subject of the grievance, except as otherwise provided in any article of this Agreement.

The filing of a grievance is a call for a meeting to discuss the grievance and is to be held within fifteen (15) calendar days at a time and place fixed by mutual agreement.

One or more of the aggrieved parties may be present at the meeting at the request of either party. Employees attending a meeting shall do so without loss of pay.

6.4 Dispute Referred to President

If a satisfactory decision is not rendered within the time limits, the Union may, within seven (7) working days of receipt of the reply or of the expiration of the time limit, whichever is earlier, refer the written grievance to the President of the University. The President shall render a written decision, after appropriate meetings and consultation, within fourteen (14) working days of receipt of the grievance.

6.5 Arbitration

6.5.1 Time Limit

In the event that any grievance or matter in dispute has not been settled through the procedure outlined above, either party may, within thirty (30) calendar days, submit the grievance or matter in dispute to an Arbitration Board in accordance with Article 6.5.

The time limits imposed by the following provisions may be waived by agreement between the employer and the Union.

6.5.2 Composition of the Board

The Arbitration Board shall consist of three members. One shall be named by the employer and one named by the Union. Each of the parties to this Agreement shall have their respective Board member selected and made known to each other within seven (7) working days of notice being given by either party for the establishment of the Board. The third position on the Board is designated the Chair.

6.5.3 Selection of the Chair

The parties shall endeavour to agree on a Chair within twenty-one (21) working days of the grievance being submitted for arbitration. In the event of their failure to agree, either party may notify the Chair of the Saskatchewan Indian Personnel Commission who shall select by lot a Chair from a list of names agreed by the parties. Once appointed, the Chair shall invite a First Nations University Elder to act as her/his advisor. The Elder shall guide the processes along traditional First Nations methods of conflict resolution.

6.5.4 Hearing

The Board, having been formed by the above procedure, shall meet, hear the evidence of both parties, and render a written decision within sixty (60) calendar days from the completion of taking evidence. The Board may determine its own procedure, in consideration of First Nations traditions and values, but will ensure that each party has the opportunity to present its case. At the hearing, each party shall be entitled to be represented by counsel or otherwise, to present evidence, to cross examine the witnesses of the other party and to present arguments either orally or in writing.

The decision of the majority of the Board on the matter at issue shall be final and binding on both parties. The Arbitration Board shall not have the power to alter any of the terms of this Agreement or to substitute any provisions, nor to give any decision inconsistent with the terms of this Agreement.

6.5.5 Time Deficiencies

Any Board of Arbitration established pursuant to the grievance procedure shall have the power to hear any arguments as to whether, in order to avoid consideration of substantive issues, time limits set forth in the grievance procedure have been unreasonably enforced. The Board may decide to deal with the case placed before it despite such minor time deficiencies.

6.5.6 Disciplinary Action

The Board shall have the power to dispose of any grievance involving dismissal or disciplinary action by any arrangement that it deems just and equitable.

6.5.7 Expenses

The fees and expenses of the Chair shall be shared equally between the parties. Each party shall be responsible for their costs, fees and expenses of witnesses and those of its Board member.

6.6 General

6.6.1 Recognition of Stewards

In order to provide an orderly and speedy process for the settling of grievances, the employer acknowledges the rights and duties of Stewards. A Steward shall assist any employee(s) in investigating, preparing and presenting a grievance in accordance with the grievance process.

6.6.2 Permission to Leave Work

The Union recognizes that each Steward or designated Union representative is employed full time by the University and that such a person will not leave the workplace during working hours without permission in order to perform duties under this Agreement. Such permission will not be unduly withheld and the Steward or designated Union representative will not have their wages deducted nor shall they be hindered, coerced, restrained or interfered with while investigating or presenting a grievance.

As far as practicable, all grievances will be dealt with during working hours and no employee or employees, who are representatives of the Union, will suffer loss of pay by reason of time spent in discussing grievances with the representatives of the University.

6.6.3 Union May Institute Grievances

The Union, its Stewards or its CUPE National Servicing Representative have the right to originate a grievance on behalf of an employee or group of employees or involving interpretation or administration of this Agreement. Such a grievance shall commence at the Human Resources Department. (See Article 6.3)

6.6.4 Facilities for Grievances

The employer shall provide appropriate space for grievance meetings.

6.6.5 Authorized Acting Officials

For the purpose of Article 6, persons duly authorized to act for and on behalf of the officials mentioned in Article 6 during their absence shall similarly be authorized to act in respect to the procedures outlined herein.

6.6.6 Representatives of CUPE

In the discussion of grievances with representatives of the employer, Stewards may at any time be accompanied by a CUPE National Servicing Representative or a Union representative from CUPE 1975.

6.6.7 Grievances Dealt With During Working Hours

As far as practicable, all grievances will be dealt with during working hours and no employee or employees, who are representatives of the Union, will suffer loss of pay by reason of time spent in discussing grievances with the representatives of the University.

6.6.8 Copies of Documents

In the event of a grievance, each party agrees, upon request, to provide the other party with copies of all documents, which the party intends to use in regard to the specific grievance.

ARTICLE 7 -- TYPES OF POSITIONS AND EMPLOYEE PROVISIONS

7.1 Full-Time

A full-time position is a position that occurs full days during the regular workweek on a continuous basis.

7.2 Regular Part-Time

A regular part-time position is a position that regularly occurs on a predictable and scheduled basis and is less than full-time.

7.3 Permanent

A permanent position is a position that occurs indefinitely.

A permanent employee is an employee who is appointed to a permanent position and has successfully completed the required probationary period.

7.4 Term

A term position is a position that occurs for a defined term for a specific project or program or to replace a permanent employee absent for a limited period. The length of a term position may be extended or shortened with two (2) weeks notice in writing contingent on organizational needs and posting requirements. A term position may be either full-time or regular part-time. The employer will include the specifics of a term position on each posting.

A term employee is an employee hired for a specific term position.

Term employees shall be entitled to all rights and benefits of this Agreement except where otherwise specified in this Agreement.

Term employees who are appointed for a period of less than one year will not be granted annual leave. Their total remuneration will include an amount of 4/52nds of salary as vacation pay. Term employees appointed for one year or more shall accumulate annual leave entitlements.

Termination of a term employee at the time the term position is discontinued is not subject to the grievance procedure.

The Union recognizes that the Human Rights Code exemption from the Human Rights Commission may be exercised to override the seniority rights of term employees when the employer is filling permanent positions.

Unless undue hardship can be demonstrated by the employer prior to the appointment, in cases where a permanent employee is appointed to a term position that does not exceed twenty-four (24) months in duration, at the end of the term appointment, the employee will be returned to his/her previous permanent position. If the employee's former permanent position no longer exists, the provisions in Article 17 will apply.

In cases where a permanent employee is appointed to a term position of greater than twenty-four (24) months, the employee foregoes any right to return to his/her previously held permanent position unless the employer and the Union agree otherwise. The employee will retain all other rights of this Agreement except severance pay.

Unless the Union and the employer mutually agree otherwise, upon notification to a permanent employee that the term position will extend beyond twenty-four (24) months and the employee elects to stay in the term position, the employee foregoes any right to return to her/his previously held permanent position. The employee will retain all other rights of this Agreement except severance pay.

When a term employee has been in the same position continuously for more than twenty-four (24) months or in the case of an employee replacing an absent employee due to disability, the employee's status will be changed to permanent.

The employee will then be entitled to all rights of a permanent employee, except the employee will not be entitled to severance pay under Article 17 if the term position is terminated or the employee is not the successful candidate if the position is posted as permanent.

The parties agree a term position shall not be used for altering or changing existing position status without the mutual agreement of the parties.

7.5 Student Worker Positions

7.5.1 Student Worker Positions

Student Worker Positions shall be mutually agreed to by the parties. The agreed to designated positions are Information Services Clerk, Store Clerk and Student Library Worker.

7.5.2 Student Library Worker

Student Library Worker positions shall adhere to SCHEDULE D. ALSO, the parties agree to the same general pay increases for the SCHEDULE D employees as those negotiated for other employees.

7.5.3 Summer Student Workers

The Union and the employer hereby agree that the employer may accommodate the employment of summer student workers in the workplace under special project funding or student employment funding opportunities (i.e.: Centennial Student Employment Program or Regina Treaty/Status Indian Services) with the understanding that:

- 1) Summer student worker terms of employment shall fall between May 1 and August 31 of any one year;
- 2) Summer student workers will not perform duties ordinarily performed by Union members;
- 3) Summer student worker positions will not be used to circumvent the creation of potential Union positions; and
- 4) Summer student workers will not be required to pay Union dues.

The employer also agrees to provide to the Union, prior to posting summer student worker positions, position descriptions along with verification that the positions being filled fall under special project funding or a student employment funding opportunity.

7.6 Casual Employees

A casual position is a position that due to its nature does not occur on a predictable and scheduled basis.

A casual employee shall be entitled to all rights and benefits of this Agreement except where specified otherwise.

Casual employees accumulate seniority after 30 days of cumulative service for the purpose of bidding into positions until such time as there is a break in service of greater than three months.

Casual employees after 30 days of cumulative service shall be recalled according to the principles of seniority and qualifications suitable for the position to be filled.

Casual employees will earn seniority according to days worked.

ARTICLE 8 -- SENIORITY

8.1 Seniority Defined

Casual employees are entitled to seniority rights as per Article 7.6.

Term employees accumulate seniority for bidding purposes only. (See Article 7.4)

Term employees who, prior to their appointment to a term position, worked as a casual, will have their casual employment recognized for seniority purposes provided there has been no break in employment of greater than three (3) months.

Seniority rights do not apply during a probation period. Upon successful completion of the probationary period, employees will be credited with seniority from the last date of hire into the bargaining unit. (See Article 9.8)

Seniority for all permanent, term and casual employees is defined as the length of employment from the last date of hire into the bargaining unit subject to any exclusions or interruptions to such as defined in this Agreement. (See Article 8.2)

Permanent employees who, prior to their appointment to a permanent position, and who previously worked on a term basis, will have their employment recognized for seniority purposes provided there has been no break in employment.

Seniority will operate on a bargaining unit wide basis unless specified otherwise in this Agreement. Seniority is a factor in determining promotions, transfers, demotions, bumping, layoff and recall.

8.2 Special Adjustments to Seniority

8.2.1 Temporary Employment Within Another University Bargaining Unit

Employees who accept temporary positions in another bargaining unit, will maintain seniority but will not accumulate it. (See Article 16)

8.2.2 Discharge Without Reinstatement

An employee shall lose seniority rights in the event of discharge without reinstatement.

8.2.3 Resignation

An employee shall lose seniority rights in the event of resignation from the University effective from the termination date. An employee may, without prejudice, withdraw a resignation up to the end of the working day following the day the resignation is submitted.

8.3 Seniority Rosters

The employer will prepare in January of each year and forward to the Union a seniority roster suitable for posting that includes all bargaining unit employees eligible to accumulate seniority.

8.4 Correction of Seniority Roster

On presentation by an employee of proof of error in the roster(s), the employer shall make a correction immediately. The correction will be in the form of a supplementary sheet suitable for posting and forwarded to the Union.

ARTICLE 9 -- VACANCIES, APPOINTMENTS AND PROBATION

9.1 Posting

All vacant bargaining unit positions, whether new or existing, will be posted within the University - Regina Campus, Saskatoon Campus, NSDT and Northern Campus and remain open for a period of five (5) working days. A posting via e-mail will be sent to all bargaining unit employees.

As well, all postings, both internal and external, shall be posted on a bulletin board outside the Human Resources Department and in other suitable locations, where appropriate and desirable.

All term positions extending beyond four (4) months shall be posted unless by agreement between the employer and the Union. Any term position that becomes a permanent position shall be posted except for Article 7.4 guidelines.

The postings will include the following information: job title, a description of the position derived from the current position description, required qualifications, location, whether permanent or term, the projected end date of a term position, whether full-time or regular part-time, regular hours of work, pay grade and salary range.

A copy of each posting will be forwarded to the Union.

With agreement from the Union, positions may be advertised outside of the University at the same time as an internal posting with the understanding that bargaining unit applications will be considered before any external application.

9.2 Bidding on Vacant Positions

Employees may bid on posted positions by submitting a resume to the Human Resources Department within the posting period. At the conclusion of the posting period, the employer will provide the Union with a copy of the screening matrix for all internal applicants. Employees may apply for positions on other campuses.

Employees on vacation, or approved leaves of absence, may apply by proxy by having a Steward or fellow employee submit an application on their behalf. This application will be given the same consideration as any other application.

The employer will not be responsible for any costs incurred in an-employee's efforts to comply with this clause.

9.3 Notice of Results

The employer agrees to make every effort to fill positions and notify applicants as expeditiously as possible following the posting period.

Employees applying for transfer will be advised in writing of the result of their applications by the Employer within two calendar weeks after the vacancy is filled or the competition cancelled.

9.4 Basis for Selection

See Articles 7 and 8 for seniority exclusions and limitations related to the following provisions.

Any posted vacancy shall be filled with preference to bargaining unit employees with the required qualifications as stated in the job posting, ability sufficient to perform the position and the greatest seniority. Any outstanding performance issues/disciplinary actions documented on the employee's official file or destined for the employee's official file will be a consideration in determining "required qualifications" and "ability sufficient". (See Article 4.6)

If there are no fully qualified CUPE bargaining unit applicants, the employer will consider, in order of seniority, the applications of employees who are close to possessing the required qualifications before considering applicants from outside of the CUPE bargaining unit. If an appointment is made of an applicant who does not possess all of the required qualifications of the position, the employer may, as a condition of appointment, require that the applicant obtain the qualification(s) within a specified time limit.

9.5 Provisional Period

A permanent employee who is appointed, placed, recalled, bumps or accepts a transfer to another permanent position within the bargaining unit shall be appointed provisionally for three (3) months, during which time performance will be appraised. Such appraisals will be discussed with the employee.

An employee who successfully completes the provisional period shall be declared permanent in the position.

9.5.1 Extension

At the discretion of the Human Resources Department, the provisional period may be extended by the cumulative length of any period(s) of absence from work for more than five consecutive days. In the event this happens, the employee will be notified in writing at least two (2) weeks prior to the extension.

Notwithstanding the above, the provisional period may also be extended by a period of up to three months if mutually agreed to in writing by both parties to this Agreement.

9.5.2 Reversion

At the end of the provisional period, if the employee has not performed satisfactorily, or at any time during the period when it becomes clearly evident that the employee is incapable of handling the job, the employee shall be returned to the former status (either layoff or position and salary) subject to any performance increment, payable no sooner than the reversion date, which normally would have been received had the employee remained in that position.

During the provisional period, the employee may revert voluntarily to the employee's former status (either layoff or position and salary) subject to any performance increment, payable no sooner than the reversion date, which normally would have been received had the employee remained in that position.

Each employee can exercise this voluntary return to former status right only once as a bargaining unit employee. The employee's offer letter from the employer shall reference this return to former status right.

During the provisional period of appointment, the CUPE employee's previously held position may be filled on a term basis.

In the event of a reversion, the vacated position will not be re-posted but rather, the selection and hiring process will continue with the remaining list of original applicants, as if no appointment had been made prior to the reversion.

If such reversion displaces an employee who has completed a probationary or provisional period, the displaced employee shall have the right to revert or to be laid off, as appropriate.

In the event of reversion to a position that has been eliminated under Article 17, the employee will not return to his/her previous position but rather, will be dealt with under the applicable provisions of Article 17.

9.6 On-the-Job Training

At the written request of an employee and with the written agreement of their supervisor, arrangements may be made for on-the-job training conditional on no disruption of the performance of the duties of any positions affected. Length of service in the work unit will be one of the factors considered in scheduling the training. This may be on the employer's time or arrangements can be made to allow access to the facilities of the workplace on the employee's time.

9.7 Probationary Period

9.7.1 Extension Due to Absence

At the discretion of the Human Resources Department, the probationary period may be extended by the cumulative length of any period(s) of absence from work for more than five consecutive days. In the event this happens, the employee will be notified prior to the extension.

9.7.2 Extension By Agreement

Notwithstanding the above, this probationary period may also be extended by a period of up to three months if mutually agreed to by both parties to this agreement.

9.7.3 Termination During Probationary Period

During their probationary period, employees will be advised of expectations regarding standards of performance. Employees will also be advised in writing of shortcomings in order to correct deficiencies. Should the employer decide to terminate the employee, the employee will be given the reasons in writing with a copy to the Union prior to the employee's termination and provided an opportunity to respond.

Seven days notice shall be given if the incumbent has been in the position for less than fifteen (15) weeks. If the incumbent has been in the position for fifteen (15) weeks or longer, two (2) weeks notice will be given. A copy of the notice shall be provided simultaneously to the Union.

Termination of an employee during the probation period is subject to the grievance procedure.

The supervisor shall advise the probationary employee of the right to have a Steward present during all of the above processes.

9.8 Length of Probationary Periods

All appointees to a permanent position, who are not already permanent employees, shall be on probation for a period of six months from the date of commencing duties in the permanent position.

Unless the employee is already a permanent employee, a term appointment to a term position shall be probationary for a period of six months from the date of commencing duties in the position. (See Article 9.5)

During the probationary period, the employee shall be entitled to all rights and benefits of this Agreement except where specified otherwise in this Agreement.

ARTICLE 10 -- WORKLOAD ISSUES

10.1 Requests for Review

When an employee feels the workload, when balanced over a reasonable period of time, is significantly greater than it should be, the employee may discuss the matter with his/her supervisor in the presence of a Steward. If the matter is not resolved, the employee may request the Union to address the issue at a joint Union-Management Committee meeting at which the employee and the supervisor shall be present.

10.2 Dispute Resolution

If a satisfactory resolution cannot be reached in meeting, the employee may grieve under the provisions of Article 6.3.

ARTICLE 11 -- HOURS OF WORK AND SPECIAL PAY PROVISIONS

11.1 Daily Hours of Work

- iii) An Operator/Caretaker shall receive the benefit of Article 11.3.8: Unsocial Hours of Work Premium if the employee is scheduled to work outside the hours of 6:00 a.m. to 6:00 p.m. on any day of the week.

- ii) The employer shall provide Plant, Property and Maintenance employees and the Union with fourteen (14) days written notice of any change to the daily hours of work.

11.2 Part-Time Employees

Except in the case of emergencies, employees who are employed to work fewer than the stated regular hours of work may not be required to work additional hours without mutual agreement.

11.3 Accommodation of Employees Who Are Students

The employer will make every effort to accommodate the academic schedule of employees who are full-time students when assigning work schedules. In the event of two such employees claiming the same work schedule, the employee with the greatest working service at the University will be given preference. (See Article 7.5 and SCHEDULE D)

11.4 Overtime

All overtime arrangements must have prior written authorization from the appropriate supervisor except in emergency situations when there is no supervisor reasonably accessible to authorize such overtime.

11.4.1 Overtime Rate

Employees shall be paid, at their current hourly rate as determined by the instructions in Schedule A of this Agreement, time and one-half for all time worked in excess of the stated regular hours of work.

11.4.2 Time Off in Lieu of Overtime

Any employee required to work overtime shall receive pay for this time unless the employee and the supervisor mutually agree in writing to time off at the appropriate overtime rate in lieu of pay.

11.4.3 Accumulation of Time Off in Lieu of Overtime

Employees may accumulate overtime compensation from each incidence of overtime for up to a twelve month period in order to provide time off with pay. Such time must be taken within three months of the end of the twelve-month period at a time mutually agreed in writing between the supervisor and the employee.

11.4.4 Part-Time Overtime

Employees who work less than full days will not receive overtime until their work exceeds the stated regular hours of work as specified in Article 11.1.

11.4.5 Overtime Voluntary

Overtime shall be voluntary except in emergencies as defined in the Labour Standards Act. In the event there is a difference of opinion between an employee and his/her supervisor as to what constitutes an emergency, the final decision shall be that of the Director of Human Resources.

11.4.6 Calculation of Overtime

Overtime paid to an employee shall be computed based on the hourly wage as determined by the instructions in Schedule A of this Agreement.

11.4.7 Call Out

11.4.7.1 Overtime

Overtime shall be voluntary. If an employee has left the place of work and is called back for overtime work, the employee shall be paid a minimum of three hours at overtime rates.

If no employee(s) volunteer, in an emergency situation, the employer can, using reverse seniority, direct employee(s) to return to work.

11.4.7.2 Scheduled Employees

Employees working according to a posted schedule who are called back to work shall be paid a minimum of three hours at overtime rates. This article does not apply to Store Clerk employees who agree to split shifts.

11.5 Unsocial Hours of Work Premium

Unless otherwise stated in this Agreement, for time actually worked, an employee will receive an additional sixty-five (65) cents per hour for each hour or part of an hour of regularly scheduled work outside the hours of 8:00 a.m. to 6:00 p.m. Monday through Friday and for all hours worked on Saturday and Sunday. If the majority of an employee's hours of work fall outside the hours specified above, the premium will be paid for the entire work day.

Unsocial hours of work premiums do not apply to overtime.

11.6 Provision of Meal

Where an employee is required to work continuously beyond normal quitting time in excess of two hours, or is required to return to work for overtime purposes for a period in excess of four hours, the employer agrees to provide a suitable meal.

11.7 Childcare Expenses

When an employee is required to be away from home overnight at the request of the supervisor or employer and when the employee has to hire someone to care for his/her children during this absence, childcare costs will be compensated to a maximum of $30.00 per overnight stay per child. A signed receipt from the care provider must accompany the expense claim.

11.8 Provision of Tools

The employer shall supply all tools and equipment required by the employee in the performance of the employee's duties. Tools will be replaced when the employee produces the worn or broken tool. The employee shall return all tools and equipment upon leaving the employment of the University.

11.9 Bilingual Bonus

An employee shall receive a bilingual bonus of four (4) percent per month providing the position requires, on a frequent and continuing basis, fluency in speaking, reading or writing in a language other than English, and the position is designated a bilingual position by the Human Resources Department.

Employees may apply in writing to the Human Resources Department, with a copy to the employee's supervisor, requesting a bilingual designation. Detailed justification supporting the request must be included.

11.10 Clothing and Protective Clothing

Clothing worn by employees at work will be neat and appropriate to the employee's duties.

Adequate protective clothing will be provided by the employer when the duties performed by an employee might result in the employee's clothing being soiled, destroyed or rendered unfit for further use.

Where employees are required to wear specific clothing or from a collection of specific clothing selected by the employer, the employer will pay the cost of the clothing and any alterations required.

11.11 Receipted Expenses

Employees will be reimbursed for reasonable receipted expenses not addressed in this Agreement while on University business.

11.12 Employment Travel Expense

The employer will reimburse employees for travel expenses incurred in performing their duties provided approval is received prior to the travel occurring.

Employees shall be reimbursed for employment travel expenses in accordance with University policy, including any additional expenses referenced in Article 11.

11.13 Itemized Statement

The employer will provide, on each pay day, to each employee, an itemized statement of wages showing the month, hours, rates, deductions, etc. Upon request, personal material will be provided in sealed envelopes.

11.14 Pay for Temporary Performance of Higher Level Duties

11.14.1 Within the Bargaining Unit

When an employee is expected to perform temporarily the duties of a higher paid position of at least a substantial amount of those duties (50% or greater) or is assigned those duties in writing by the employee's supervisor to fill a position paying a higher rate for more than three consecutive days, or seven days (not necessarily consecutive),-within 60 days, the CUPE salary will be adjusted from the date of reassignment to the greater of:

- 1) the first step in the salary range of the position to which assigned; or
- 2) the present salary plus two increments from the range of the position to which assigned; or
- 3) the present salary plus two increments in their current position.

The employee will be paid from the first day of the assignment the rate for the position being filled and the rate will apply for the duration of the assignment.

The employee has the right to refuse to perform higher-level duties.

11.14.2 Outside the Bargaining Unit

Prior to an employee performing duties outside the bargaining unit, a meeting to determine the details will be held with the necessary parties.

The employee has the right, at any time, to refuse to perform higher-level duties.

11.15 Administrative Errors

Administrative errors made relative to an employee's salary or benefit plans will be adjusted in such a way as not to prejudice the rights of the employee. In any instance where recovery is required, the employer and Union will meet with the employee to develop a reasonable repayment schedule. Failure to agree will result in the employer implementing a reasonable repayment schedule.

ARTICLE 12 -- PERFORMANCE EVALUATION AND INCREMENTS

The parties agree the purpose of performance evaluations is to provide the employee with an honest and fair assessment of performance. The persons involved in performance evaluations recognize that the process depends upon honesty and fairness. All persons involved in the review will undertake their roles seriously and with integrity, ensuring that statements, both verbal and written, refer to aspects of performance, are fair commentary and are based upon appropriate evaluation and evidence.

Changes to the Performance Evaluation Form will be discussed with the Union prior to alterations.

12.1 Process and Responsibilities

Approximately thirty (30) days prior to the employee's annual performance increment anniversary date in his/her current position, the supervisor may initiate a performance evaluation by forwarding a completed Performance Evaluation Form to an employee under his/her direction.

The supervisor is ultimately responsible for completion of the performance evaluation process, which includes discussing the performance evaluation with the employee, obtaining signatures and forwarding the Performance Evaluation Form to the Director of Human Resources where it will be placed in the employee's official file. The employer will forfeit the right to withhold an increment if the supervisor fails to complete the evaluation process by the employee's anniversary date.

Increments may be withheld only when the performance evaluation documents unsatisfactory performance of duties.

The employee may have a Steward present as an observer during the performance evaluation discussion.

The supervisor shall provide a copy of the completed Performance Evaluation Form to the employee who shall have five working days to review and prepare a response at their discretion. The employee may request the assistance of a Steward in preparing a response.

The employee shall sign the performance evaluation as proof the employee has read it; such signature shall not necessarily constitute agreement with the contents of the evaluation.

The employee may include a response to the performance evaluation as an attachment to the Performance Evaluation Form before returning the form to their supervisor.

12.2 Changes to Anniversary Date

Performance increments are effective on an employee's annual anniversary date and will be paid no later than two pay periods after the anniversary date.

When an employee is reclassified under Article 37 to a higher pay grade or appointed to a new higher pay grade position, the date of the position change will become the employee's new anniversary date.

When an employee is laterally transferred to a position with the same pay grade or to a lower pay grade, an employee's anniversary date does not change.

12.3 Working Service

Working service includes annual leave and leave for jury duty. Working service excludes the cumulative total of all other absences greater than four consecutive weeks during the annual performance review period. Employees with 52 full weeks of working service from their anniversary date are eligible for a full performance increment. Employees with less than 52 full weeks of working service from their anniversary date shall have their increment anniversary date set back accordingly.

Pay range ceilings apply.

An employee who takes parental/maternity leave will not be penalized for his/her absence from work. The employee will return to his/her employment status held at the commencement of the leave and the performance increment date deferred to account for a full year of working service. In addition, any general salary increases to the CUPE salary grid will be applied to his/her salary upon return.

12.4 Performance Evaluation Grievances

If an employee does not agree with the contents or outcome of their employee performance evaluation, the employee shall have access to the grievance and arbitration process.

12.5 Financial Exigency

The parties agree that performance increments are paid subject to satisfactory performance. If increments are withheld, any adjustments to salary, or compensation of any kind for individuals employed or funded by the University, directly or indirectly, shall be made on a basis that is fair, equitable and consistent in approach.

12.6 Preferential Treatment

In no case shall any increase be provided to a person not covered by this Agreement that exceeds the average increase provided to persons within this Agreement.

ARTICLE 13 -- DISCIPLINE

13.1 Principle of Innocence and Burden of Proof

Both parties agree that an employee is considered innocent until proven guilty. In case of discharge or discipline, the burden of proof of just cause shall rest with the employer. Evidence presented shall pertain only to the grounds stated in the discharge or discipline notice to the employee.

The employer endorses the concept of progressive discipline in situations of poor performance. While the employer reserves the right to use any disciplinary action deemed appropriate, regardless of the order of the following clauses, the parties agree that, where possible, an employee should receive a verbal warning of inappropriate behaviour before written reprimands or other types of disciplinary action are taken.

Verbal reprimands shall not be documented in the employee's official file, are not grievable and shall be delivered in the presence of a Steward.

13.2 Written Reprimand

If an employee is formally reprimanded concerning unacceptable conduct or performance, it will be done with Steward present. A written reprimand including particulars of the work performance or behaviour, which resulted in the reprimand, shall be forwarded to the employee within ten working days of the reprimand discussion with copies to the Union and the Human Resources Department. A copy of the written reprimand will be placed on the employee's official file. An employee may respond in writing to the reprimand, and such response will become part of the employee's official file.

Written reprimands will be removed from the employee's file after two years of subsequent employment during which no additional documented disciplinary action is taken.

Written reprimands are grievable by the Union.

13.3 Written Warning

The Union shall be notified of the issuing of a written warning forty-eight (48) hours (two working days) in advance of the warning being given to the employee. The written warning shall be given to the employee with a Steward present. Copies of the written warning will be forwarded to the Union and the Human Resources Department. A copy of the written warning will be placed on the employee's official file. An employee may respond in writing to the reprimand, and such response will become part of the employee's official file.

Written warnings will be removed from the employee's file after two years of subsequent employment during which no additional documented disciplinary action is taken.

Written warnings are grievable by the Union.

13.4 Suspension

The employer reserves the right to suspend an employee for just cause, with or without pay depending on the severity of the infraction, for a period of up to one month. Confirmation of the action to be taken by the employer will be conveyed to the employee in writing by the Human Resources Department as soon as possible, with a copy of the suspension letter simultaneously sent to the Union. If the Union considers the action unjustified, it shall have from the date the suspension begins or the notice is received by the Union, whichever is later, fourteen calendar days in which to file a grievance.

Suspension letters will be removed from the employee's file after two years of subsequent employment during which no additional documented disciplinary action is taken.

13.5 Dismissal

The employer reserves the right to dismiss any employee for just cause. Written confirmation of the action taken will be conveyed to the employee in writing by the Human Resources Department with a copy sent simultaneously to the Union. The employee shall be suspended for fourteen (14) calendar days with pay during which time the Union shall have the opportunity to investigate the circumstances and state its case.

Unless a grievance is presented to the employer within the fourteen-day period following the receipt of a copy of a dismissal letter, the employee will be dismissed. If no just cause for dismissal can be proved, the employee shall be reinstated without loss of pay or with a lesser disciplinary action as the parties may agree is appropriate to the circumstances.

13.6 Benefits During Suspension

An employee's benefit plans will continue in full effect during any suspension.

ARTICLE 14 -- RESIGNATION

An employee who resigns is expected to give at least one month's notice in writing to the appropriate supervisor with a copy to the Human Resources Department. The length of the notice period may be changed or waived by mutual agreement between the employee and the appropriate supervisor. (See Article 8.2.3)

ARTICLE 15 -- RETIREMENT

The pension plan referenced throughout Article 15 refers to the Group Retirement Services pension plan addressed in Article 23.

15.1 Retirement Age and Benefit Coverage

Normal retirement is the first of the month coinciding with or following the employee's sixty-fifth birthday. By giving three months notice, an employee may retire any time in the ten years proceeding the normal retirement date.

An employee may continue working and defer receiving pension payments. After age 65, continued employment will be conditional on satisfactory annual performance evaluations. Contributions to the pension plan from both employee and employer will be made for employees working after the normal retirement date until the employee retires or until pension payments begin.

15.2 Special Arrangements

Without prejudice, the employer may propose a plan to an employee who is not eligible for retirement whereby the employee's employment may be discontinued in accordance with a special arrangement, including a suitable financial settlement. A member may submit a request to the employer to initiate such an arrangement.

The employer will keep the Union and the employee who is eligible for such a special arrangement apprised of the basic terms of the arrangement with the understanding that there may be some flexibility in order to provide for the particular needs of the individual.

Without prejudice, the employer may offer an early retirement package to an individual employee or to a group of employees who are eligible to take early retirement and who meet certain conditions as outlined in the University's pension plan.

Whenever the employer proposes a plan for discontinuance of employment or assisted early retirement, the employer shall inform the Union, in writing, of the terms of any such formal offer two full days prior to making the formal written offer to the employee(s).

Any offer made in writing shall remain open for a minimum of thirty (30) days. Employees have the right to have a Union representative participate in any discussion that may take place between the employer and the employee after the formal written offer is made to the employee.

Any agreement or arrangement concluded must be in writing. The arrangement will not take effect until the Vice-President of Administration, the affected employee(s) and the Union have signed the agreement.

ARTICLE 16 -- ENTRY AND RE-ENTRY FROM EXCLUDED POSITIONS

An employee who is appointed to a term position excluded from the bargaining unit shall cease membership and discontinue paying dues for the duration of the appointment provided the appointment is for more than one (1) calendar month. At the termination of the appointment to an excluded position, the employee shall automatically revert to his/her former position, become eligible for CUPE membership and commence paying dues. The employee shall have all the rights and privileges which are possible at the time, such as general salary increases and performance increments, restored effective the date of return to the bargaining unit, as if having been a CUPE member continuously throughout the period of appointment to the excluded position. Seniority will be adjusted accordingly provided the appointment is for more than one (1) calendar month.

Unless the Union and the University mutually agree otherwise, the term position will not extend beyond 24 months.

A University employee from outside the bargaining unit who is appointed to a position in the bargaining unit and who had previous continuous employment with the University, shall have all the rights and privileges which are possible at the time, such as annual leave entitlements except for the probationary requirement and seniority, as if having been a CUPE member continuously throughout their University employment. When entitled, the employee's seniority shall date from the time the employee enters the bargaining unit.

ARTICLE 17 - STAFF REDUCTION

17.1 Determination

Should the employer determine a need to reduce the hours of work in or eliminate any positions based on financial necessity, a reduced need due to restructuring, elimination or transfer of any University-sponsored programs or services, or as a result of a reduced need due to technological change, the affected permanent incumbent will be dealt with in the manner outlined below. (See Article 17.2.3)

Term and casual employees are excluded from these provisions.

For an employee in a term position of indefinite length, the notice period for the purpose of Article 17.2.2 only, is deemed to commence with the notice of a specific termination date in that position.

17.2 Notice

17.2.1 Notice To the Union

The employer shall provide as much notice as possible to the Union; however, notwithstanding, the employer shall notify the Union in writing at least two (2) working days prior to notifying the affected employee(s) of the reduction in or elimination of their position(s). The following details will be provided:

- 1) the positions (title and location) that will be affected;
- 2) to what extent each position will be affected;
- 3) the reason for the intended reduction or elimination; and
- 4) the intended date of employee notification.

17.2.2 Notice To the Employee

The employer will provide the affected employee(s) with notice as required in accordance with the Labour Standards Act of Saskatchewan. In no instance will the employee(s) be given less than thirty calendar days notice.

The employer will notify each employee and the Union in writing:

- 1) of the reduced hours or elimination of the position;
- 2) of the reason for the reduced hours or elimination of the position; and
- 3) of whether the employer intends for the employee to remain employed in his/her position with the University during the notice period or that the employee will receive pay in lieu of the notice period prorated.

If the employee qualifies, the employer will include the details of an offer of assisted early retirement as part of the notification package to the employee. (See Article 17.3)

Within five working days of the reduction notification to the employee, the employer shall supply the employee with the following information for bumping consideration:

- 1) a CUPE seniority roster;

2) position description or job posting, whichever is most recent, for positions that qualify and have an incumbent with less seniority than the bumping employee; and

3) current work schedule of above-mentioned positions.

Throughout the notice period the employer will provide the affected employee(s) with reasonable information such as position descriptions and/or job postings toward informed decision-making regarding other suitable employment opportunities at the University.

In addition, the Human Resources Department will offer counseling services. The employee may be referred to other sources for additional counseling based on need. A union representative, Elder or other support person (excluding a parent, spouse, son or daughter) may be present at meetings with Human Resources.

17.2.3 Technological Change Consultation

In an attempt to keep employees apprised of current and anticipated modifications to the day-to-day work techniques of various classes of employees, the employer and the Union agree to meet from time to time as necessary. In addition, when the Human Resources Department becomes aware of impending significant technological change at the University, it will undertake to call such a meeting.

In cases of technological change, which directly affects conditions of employment, the employer and the Union agree to enter into consultation at the request of either party.

Consultation may include such things as:

- the nature of change to be introduced;
- timing of such; reassignment of duties;

17.3.2 Notification by the Employee

The affected employee may elect to accept the early retirement offer by notifying the Human Resources Department, in writing, within fourteen calendar days of written notice from the employer. Upon election of this option, the employee will forego any other options outlined in Article 17.

An employee opting to accept an offer of assisted early retirement will cease being an employee on the first calendar day after his/her notice period from the employer expires, foregoing any further rights under this Agreement unless otherwise specified in this Agreement. The first calendar day after his/her notice period expires shall also be deemed the employee's retirement date.

17.4 Redeployment and/or Retraining

17.4.1 Redeployment and/or Retraining Offer

The employer will make every attempt to provide employees with offers of redeployment or retraining. Such training may be for an existing permanent position, a new permanent position or to supplement an employee's skills.

The employer will include written details of an offer of redeployment and/or retraining as part of the notification package to the employee. The employer will notify the Union of the terms of the offer prior to presentment to the employee. The affected employee may elect to accept the offer of redeployment and/or retraining by notifying the Human Resources Department, in writing, within fourteen (14) calendar days of written notice from the employer.

17.4.2 Provisional Period

A permanent employee who is transferred shall be appointed provisionally for three months, during which time performance will be appraised. Such appraisals will be discussed with the employee in the presence of a Steward, if the employee so chooses.

An employee who successfully completes the provisional period shall be declared permanent in the position and will forego any other options outlined in Article 17.

At the discretion of the Human Resources Department, the provisional period may be extended by the cumulative length of any period(s) of absence from work for more than five consecutive days. In the event this happens, the employee will be notified in writing at least two (2) weeks prior to the extension.

Notwithstanding the above, the provisional period may also be extended by a period of up to three months if mutually agreed to in writing by both parties to this Agreement.

At the end of the provisional period, if the employee has not performed satisfactorily, the employee shall be provided the balance of their options under Article 17.

17.5 Termination and Severance

17.5.1 Notification by the Employee

Subsequent to the notification of reduced hours in or the elimination of an employee's position, the employee may elect to terminate employment and receive severance pay by notifying the Human Resources Department within fourteen calendar days of written notice from the employer. Upon election of this option, the employee will forego any other options outlined in Article 17.

17.5.3 Calculation of Severance Pay

Severance pay shall be calculated at a rate of one month's pay at the employee's current rate of pay for each full year of working service. Partial years of employment shall be prorated for this calculation. Regardless of years of working service, the maximum amount payable by way of severance shall be limited to twelve (12) months pay and payable to the employee on the last day of their notice period. (See Article 17.7.8)

17.6 Bumping

17.6.1 Notification by the Employee

If the employee does not elect early retirement (where applicable), redeployment and/or retraining as offered, layoff and recall or termination and severance, the employee may elect to exercise bumping rights by providing written notice to the Human Resources Department within fourteen (14) calendar days of written notice from the employer, including notice of which position the employee wishes to bump. Upon election of this option, the employee will forego any other options outlined in Article 17.

17.6.2 Bumping Rights

Only permanent positions will be considered for bumping. An employee may bump another Union member with less seniority. For the purposes of this paragraph, the Regina Campus, the Saskatoon Campus, the Northern Campus and NSDT shall each be treated as one campus.

Employees choosing to bump to another campus will be responsible for moving expenses.

Bumping rights shall accrue as follows:

- 1) First into a job title where the position is similar to the employee's current position (same pay grade) provided that the employee meets the minimum qualifications for the job.
- 2) Second, into any position at the same or lower pay level provided that the employee meets the minimum qualifications for the job as it was last posted or evaluated, as the case may be, except when the employer can demonstrate to the Union a bona fide change in the position requirements.
- 3) Employees who bump into a different job title and pay grade shall be placed on a provisional period.
- 4) The employee who is bumped shall immediately have access to the provisions of Article 17 except that the requirement for notice, Article 17.2, will not apply. If there is advance notice of a bump occurring, the affected employee shall be dealt with in accordance with Article 17.4, and all subsequent clauses in this article to the extent that time and opportunity permit.

The employee will be placed into the new position on the first working day following the notification period from the employer.

Notwithstanding the provisions of Article 17.6, at the request of the employee, the employer and the Union may agree on another arrangement, without prejudice, for a bumping situation. The employee must submit a letter requesting special consideration to the Human Resources Department prior to the mid-point of the employee's notice period from the employer.

17.7 Layoff and Recall

17.7.1 Applications for Re-Employment

Laid off employees shall provide the Human Resource Department with a current resume within fourteen (14) calendar days of the start date of their lay off. When a new bargaining unit position is created or a position becomes vacant, the employer will automatically enter the laid off employee's name with the names of other applicants from within the bargaining unit. The position will be filled in accordance with Articles 9.2.2 and 9.4.

17.7.2 Election to Work Casual or Term

The employee may elect to work in available casual or term positions for which they have the qualifications and ability to perform the duties required for the position, without prejudicing their right to recall. Such casual or term employment shall suspend the employee's cumulative layoff for the duration of the employment. Upon expiry of the term position or if the employee fails the provisional period, the employee will be returned to cumulative layoff status.

17.7.3 Reporting for Duty

If a laid off employee is successful in their application to a posted position in Article 17.7.1 above, they shall report for duty on a mutually agreed date. If there is no mutually agreed date, the employee shall report for duty as specified in the appointment letter sent by registered mail to the employee's last known address. Failure to report for duty as specified will automatically cancel the awarding of the position to the employee. The employee will remain on layoff status. The employer will then award the position to the next qualified applicant. If the next or subsequent successful applicants are also on layoff, this clause will continue to apply until the position has been filled.

17.7.4 Decline of Offer

If a laid off employee is awarded a posted position through the application of this article, they shall be allowed one occasion in which to decline a position or fail to respond to an appointment. If the employee fails to respond to a second appointment or declines the awarding of the position on a second occasion by failing to report for duty within the ten calendar day period, the employee's employment shall be terminated unless the failure(s) to return to work have been because of circumstances beyond the employee's control.

17.7.5 Address Advice

It shall be the responsibility of all employees, including those laid off, to keep the Human Resources Department advised in writing of any changes to their address and/or telephone number. The Union will not hold the employer responsible for their inability to contact an employee due to an outdated address or telephone information.

17.7.6 Provisional Period on Recall

Employees who are recalled from layoff to a permanent or term position shall be considered to be on a provisional period in accordance with Article 9.5. If their performance is deemed to be unsatisfactory within this period of time, they will be returned to layoff and not recalled to the same position. The time spent in the position in question will not be included in the calculation of cumulative layoff.

17.7.7 Salary Administration

An employee who is recalled to or bumps into a position in a lower pay grade than their previous position, shall be offered the salary within the new pay grade that takes into account the employee's previous working service within the bargaining unit.

17.7.8 Severance After Layoff

When a permanent employee has been laid off for a cumulative period of twelve months without having successfully regained permanent employment, or the employee chooses to give up their recall rights, the employee will be considered severed and will be issued severance pay.

17.7.9 Grievances

Grievances concerning layoff and recall shall be initiated at Step II of the grievance process.

17.7.10 Benefits During Layoff

The laid off employee may make arrangements with the Human Resources Department to continue paying the employee portion of the premiums for supplementary health care and/or dental care throughout the first six (6) months of the cumulative layoff period. The employer will continue to pay the employer's portion of those premiums selected by the employee. Should the employee choose to give up their recall rights, premium payments will be discontinued except where the employee is 55 or will reach the age of 55 in the year of layoff or during the year after the year of layoff. In these instances, Article 15.1 will apply.

ARTICLE 18 -- CLEARANCE UPON TERMINATION

Upon termination of employment, the final salary cheque will be issued within six (6) days of the last day on payroll, or as soon thereafter as all financial and material obligations of the employee to the employer are satisfied. Such obligations may include, but are not limited to, the return of all keys, identification cards, library cards, audio-visual and other equipment, and reimbursement for goods, services and outstanding travel advances.

ARTICLE 19 -- PAYMENT TO ESTATES OF DECEASED EMPLOYEES

Such a request must be made in advance of ordering the glasses.

Notwithstanding Article 32.7.1, it is the responsibility of the employee to ensure he/she initiates and adheres to the following provisions if the initial eye exam reveals problems related to the VDU. If the employee does not fulfill this responsibility, the payment provisions for subsequent eye exams and/or special eyeglasses may be adversely affected.

Employees who work steadily at a VDU will be ensured a fifteen (15)-minute break every morning and every afternoon. Every effort will be made to provide these breaks in such a manner that employees will not work steadily at the unit for a period of more than two (2) hours. This refusal shall not be grounds for disciplinary action, but if the refusal results in the employee(s) not being able to perform their normal duties and other work is not available, the employee(s) may immediately be taken off payroll until once again able to perform their normal duties.

ARTICLE 36 -- DURATION AND CONTINUATION OF AGREEMENT

36.1 Duration

When a permanent employee, their supervisor or the Human Resources Department, feels that a position is incorrectly classified, a written request for a classification review may be submitted to the Director of Human Resources with a copy to the Union. The Director shall respond within thirty (30) calendar days. Unless it can be clearly demonstrated to the Director of Human Resources that the responsibilities of the position have changed, a review will not be carried out until at least one (1) year has elapsed since the last review. Denial of a review by the Director of Human Resources may be grieved under the provisions of Article 6.3.

Job sharing may include equal splitting of a position or another arrangement and may be for any length of time or an indefinite time. Both the Union and the employer must approve all arrangements in writing.
- 39.2 If agreement is reached between the parties that job-sharing will take place, only the vacant portion of the position to be shared will be posted.
- 39.3 All employee benefit plans will be available to the incumbents of job-sharing positions who meet the eligibility requirements. These will be pro-rated for their portion of employment.
- 39.4 If a long-term absence occurs due to illness, maternity leave, or other approved leave of absence; the other employee may cover the period of absence. If this is not acceptable to the other employee, then the vacancy may be filled on a term basis.

- 39.5 If the original incumbent of the position resigns or transfers, the position will be posted as a full time position. This shall not preclude the successful applicant from requesting a job-share agreement. If the other job-sharing employee resigns or transfers, the position may revert to full-time or will be posted for another job share as requested by the original incumbent.
- 39.6 In the event an employee is displaced as per Article 17.1 in a job-share, seniority will be a factor in determining the priority of placement in any available position in the department. Employees who are not placed will be subject to the conditions of the layoff clause. In this situation, the employer is not obligated to special considerations such as an employee's interest in part-time work.

ARTICLE 40 -- JURISDICTION OF NEW AND REVISED POSITIONS

The Union and the employer agree that the following resolution process will be followed to determine Union jurisdiction where any new positions or existing positions are revised at the First Nations University of Canada.

Once the job description for the new or revised position has been created by the employer, which job description will include among other things the supervisor's title, the title of the position providing functional direction (where applicable), areas of responsibility, minimum qualifications (education, experience, technical and non-technical skills), proposed salary and hours of work, the employer will provide the job description and an organizational chart to URFA and CUPE along with a letter of intent to create or revise such position. The letter of intent shall include the employer's view as to which bargaining unit the position might be assigned, and where applicable will include the employer's view that the position is out of scope. Correspondence via e-mail will be acceptable.

URFA and CUPE will have five (5) working days from the date of receipt of the letter of intent, job description and organizational chart from the employer to either respond to the employer:

- a) agreeing with the proposed job description and Union/bargaining unit designation of the position or
- b) requesting further details and/or clarification from the employer of the reasons for the employer's view as to, among other things, which bargaining unit the position is out of scope and a list of questions the bargaining unit would like answered concerning the new position. At that time, either of the Unions may also request a joint meeting be held with the employer.

Where a joint meeting is requested by either Union, the meeting shall include representatives from the employer, URFA and CUPE and it will be scheduled by the employer to be held within five (5) working days of the employer receiving the request for the meeting.

If during the joint meeting the parties are unable to reach a mutual agreement regarding the scope and/or designation of the appropriate bargaining unit for the position in question, the parties agree to thereafter apply jointly to the Saskatchewan Labour Relations Board for a decision regarding the scope of the new or revised position and the assignment of that position to the proper bargaining unit. Where both URFA and CUPE claim the position in question falls within the scope of their jurisdiction, the joint application to the Labour Relations Board shall involve all three parties, being the employer, URFA and CUPE. Should either CUPE and/or URFA not claim jurisdiction over the position in question, the non-disputing Union shall confirm its position in writing to the two remaining parties, and thereafter only the employer and the disputing Union shall proceed with the joint application to the Labour Relations Board.

The decision of the Labour Relations Board shall be final and binding on all parties to the agreement.

Both Unions will be entitled to have at least one representative in attendance with pay, at the joint meeting and the Labour Relations Board hearing.

The time limits outlined in this Agreement may be waived on a case-by-case basis by agreement of all parties.

SCHEDULE B

Date Approved: November 19, 2001

Approved by: President

Policy Number:

Subject: Promoting Positive
Human Relations:
Policy to Prevent Harassment &
Discrimination

1. PREAMBLE:

The Saskatchewan Indian Federated College (SIFC) is committed to providing an environment that affirms and promotes First Nations cultures and values, and the dignity of human beings of diverse backgrounds and needs. The policy prohibiting harassment ensures that all members of the SIFC community—its Elders, students, staff, and faculty—have the right to participate equally in activities at the SIFC without the fear of harassment or discrimination. This right carries with it the expectation that all members of the SIFC community will conduct themselves in an appropriate and responsible manner, with due respect and regard for the rights of others. No member of the SIFC community shall cause or participate in discrimination against or harassment of another person.

2. POLICY:

With this policy statement the Saskatchewan Indian Federated College declares that it will neither tolerate nor condone any form of harassment or discrimination as defined in this document. Every reasonable and practicable effort will be made to see that no member of the SIFC community is subjected to harassment or discrimination in the SIFC environment. The SIFC, exercising due diligence, will act promptly, in a fair and unbiased manner, to investigate any reports of harassment or discrimination and take appropriate action when either is substantiated. Harassment and discrimination violate the rights of individuals and negatively affect the SIFC as a whole. Action taken to stop harassment and discrimination that has occurred will include a wide range of disciplinary measures, up to and including dismissal or expulsion.

3. SCOPE

The SIFC recognizes the fundamental importance of academic freedom, individual rights and natural justice. Nothing in this policy is to be interpreted in a way that will infringe upon academic freedom, or upon conduct between persons that is based upon mutual consent, or that will serve as a proscription of responsible human interaction. This policy is not to be interpreted, administered, or applied in such a way as to detract from the rights and obligations of those in supervisory or instructional roles to provide feedback on the performance of their employees or students in order to fulfill their responsibilities to manage, instruct, and discipline.

This policy applies to all Elders, faculty, staff, and students of the SIFC while on SIFC grounds or while performing duties for the SIFC. Contractors are required to conform to this policy as part of their contractual agreement.

Volunteers and visitors to the SIFC are expected to meet all obligations of this policy as a condition of free access to SIFC property.

An incident that involves the SIFC or SIFC-related events may be considered to be harassment or discrimination under the terms of this policy whether or not it occurs on campus and whether or not it occurs during normal working hours. Co-op programs, internships, practica, and field placements are included within the scope of this policy.

Two key pieces of legislation define the illegality of harassing or discriminatory behaviour: the 1979 Saskatchewan Human Rights Code and Regulations (as amended from time to time), and the Occupational Health and Safety Act and Regulations (1996). For further detail, readers should consult the original legislation.

All complaints must and will be taken seriously. The rights of all persons will be respected. All members of the SIFC community should use the procedures outlined in this policy to address incidents of alleged harassment or discrimination. Nevertheless, individuals have the right to refer their concerns to the SIFC Occupational Health and Safety Committee, Saskatchewan Labour—Occupational Health and Safety Division, the Human Rights Commission, the police, or may exercise any other legal rights under law. Members of bargaining units may use the appropriate grievance procedure as an alternative to the procedures described in this policy, but are encouraged to use this policy first. Nothing in this policy will limit or amend the provisions of any collective agreement.

4. HARASSMENT AND DISCRIMINATION - DEFINITIONS

Harassment and discrimination are, fundamentally, a selective denial of the basic right of each individual to dignity and respect. The SIFC defines within this section and the appendices, the types of harassment and discrimination which, taken together, constitute the definitions of all forms of harassment and discrimination included in this policy.

The standard of a reasonable person will be used for the interpretation of definitions and all other parts of this policy. It will be applied to determine what individuals ought to know, and what effect specific actions would be expected to have. The fact that words or actions offend an individual does not automatically mean that those words or actions constitute harassment. The subject and duration of the words or actions must be such that a reasonable person would find them not merely unpleasant, but severe enough to create a hostile environment or to meet another criterion of the Definitions.

Harassment and discrimination may be intentional or unintentional. The beliefs or intentions of an alleged harasser will not be accepted as an excuse for harassment if they do not meet the reasonable person standard, that is if a reasonable person would have known that the words or actions were likely to constitute harassment or discrimination.

Harassment or Discrimination Based on a Prohibited Ground is defined as any objectionable or unwanted conduct, comment, display, communication (in any form), behaviour, or practice that is based on a prohibited ground and:

- a. would reasonably be perceived to create a hostile, intimidating, or humiliating environment for working or learning, or constitute a threat to the health or safety of the individual;
- or
- b. has the effect of imposing burdens, obligations or disadvantages on, or has the effect of granting privileges or preference to, an individual or group of individuals.

Prohibited grounds are any of the following grounds specified by the Saskatchewan Human Rights Code and/or the Occupational Health and Safety Act (1996): race; creed; religion; colour; sex; sexual orientation; family status; marital status; disability; nationality; ancestry; place of origin; receipt of public assistance; physical size or weight. Age is also a prohibited ground, except where discrimination on the basis of age is permitted by law.

One incident, or the aggregation of a series of incidents, may constitute harassment and/or discrimination. For a more complete definition and specific examples of what may or may not constitute harassment at the SIFC see:

- Appendix B - Definition and Examples of Attitudinal Harassment
- Appendix C - Definition and Examples of Sexual Harassment
- Appendix D - Definitions and Examples of Racial Harassment

5. RESPONSIBILITIES OF INDIVIDUALS

- 5.1 All members of the SIFC community have the responsibility not to participate in or condone any form of harassment or discrimination and to see that any institutional authority they hold is not used in any way that could result, intentionally or unintentionally, in harassment or discrimination.
- 5.2 Any member of the SIFC community who believes that he or she has been subjected to harassment or discrimination is encouraged to handle the problem, by clearly and firmly making known to the alleged harasser that the harassment or discrimination is objectionable and must stop. It is understood that while this step is considered extremely important it may not be possible in all situations.
- 5.3 Persons who believe that they are experiencing harassment or discrimination have the responsibility to report their situation to the SIFC, so that it can be effectively addressed.
- 5.4 All persons who become involved in the resolution of a complaint have the responsibility to maintain confidentiality throughout this process. (See Section for a further explanation of confidentiality).

6. RESPONSIBILITIES OF SIFC ADMINISTRATORS

- 6.1 For the purposes of this policy, an administrator is defined as a President, Vice-President, Dean, Director, Registrar, SIFC Librarian, or Department Head.
- 6.2 The SIFC President has the responsibility to see that this policy remains effective.
- 6.3 SIFC administrators have the responsibility to remain alert for the warning signs of harassment and discrimination and to act promptly in contacting the SIFC Harassment Prevention Officers (HPOs). SIFC administrators shall cooperate with the HPO from the filing of the complaint to its resolution.

- 6.4 SIFC administrators have the responsibility to maintain an environment free of harassment and discrimination by acting as role models for the SIFC community. They also have the responsibility to watch closely for signs of harassment or discrimination, and to act to stop these practices when detected through the use of education and information distribution, and by reporting the situation to a HPO.
- 6.5 An SIFC administrator may initiate an action to deal with harassment and discrimination even though there has not been a written request for such action.
- 6.6 A HPO will be responsible for determining whether or not harassment and/or discrimination has occurred. Where possible and appropriate, a HPO will facilitate resolution satisfactory to a complaint of harassment or discrimination.

7. REPORTING HARASSMENT OR DISCRIMINATION

- 7.1 Any member of the SIFC community who believes that he or she has been subjected to harassment or discrimination is encouraged to handle the problem by clearly and firmly making known to the person(s) involved that their actions constitute harassment or discrimination, are objectionable, and must stop.
- 7.2 If this is unsuccessful or inappropriate, the person(s) believing that he or she is experiencing objectionable treatment should seek further guidance from the HPO. Requests for information about the policy and procedures may be made anonymously, and can be made to an HPO. The Harassment and Discrimination Prevention Policy document is posted on the SIFC Web Site.
- 7.3 In all cases where this information indicates to the person that harassment or discrimination as defined by this Policy may have occurred, the person is encouraged to seek assistance from an HPO.
- 7.4 The SIFC expect that concerns be raised in a timely manner; however, complaints may be made within one year of the alleged incident(s). Exceptions may be made in unusual circumstances.
- 7.5 Anyone who receives a complaint or allegation of harassment or discrimination is required to report this complaint to an HPO. The person to whom the report is made will refer the person(s) reporting the concerns to this policy.
- 7.6 Following consultation with an HPO, the complainant has the following options:
 - a) to proceed to the informal process;

- b) to proceed to the formal process;
- c) to take no further action under these procedures;
- d) to pursue any other course of action available under law.

10. CONFIDENTIALITY AND RETALIATION

10.1 Any complaint of harassment or discrimination will be handled in confidence. The SIFC will not disclose the identity of the complainant or respondent, or the circumstances of the complaint, except where necessary for the purpose of investigation or corrective action, where required by law, or for the protection of individuals. All complaints will be recorded, and all subsequent investigations documented, but these records will also be held in confidence.

10.2 Interference with the conduct of an investigation, whether the complaint was substantiated or unsubstantiated, may result in disciplinary action by the SIFC. A breach of confidentiality by any individual with respect to a complaint may also constitute retaliation.

10.3 No person shall discharge, suspend, expel, intimidate, coerce, or otherwise retaliate against a person because that person, in good faith, participates in these procedures. Any such reprisal shall be considered harassment under this agreement.

- 10.4 No record of the initial complaint shall be kept in the complainant's personnel or student file unless the appropriate Officer determines that the complaint was fraudulent or malicious.
- 10.5 All information pertaining to a written complaint of harassment shall be retained in the Human Resources Office.
- 10.6 The SIFC may also take disciplinary action against any person submitting a fraudulent, malicious, or frivolous complaint of harassment of discrimination under the terms of the policy.

11. APPEALS

Any decision of an administrator concerning a respondent or a complainant who is a SIFC staff member may be appealed through the procedures set out in the appropriate collective bargaining agreement. If the complainant is a student, an appeal may be pursued in accordance with procedures to be established by the Student Discipline Committee of the Academic Council.

APPENDIX A: HARASSMENT & DISCRIMINATION PREVENTION RESOURCES

A team-based approach will be used to resolve complaints of harassment. The team consists of the Tawaw Committee, the Harassment Prevention Officers, and the designated HR official. The team members will be chosen by the SIFC to ensure that personnel with expertise in different types of harassment and discrimination are available as necessary.

Roles and Responsibilities

Harassment Preventions Officers (HPOs)

The Harassment Prevention Officers are appointed by the SIFC specifically to deal with harassment and discrimination concerns. The HPOs will receive complaints and be responsible for initial investigation, and facilitating informal resolution of complaints.

Designated Human Resources Official

The designated HR official is responsible coordination of the formal hearing process, the development and delivery of training and education, reporting, and compiling statistics.

The Tawaw Committee

The Tawaw is a group, appointed by the President with membership from all employee groups, whose purpose is to promote awareness of harassment and discrimination, monitor the effectiveness of these procedures and of the team, and to review this policy in detail at least every three years.

The Tawaw Committee is composed of the following:

- An Elder,
- A representative appointed by the SIFC Student Association,
- A representative appointed by the SIFC Faculty Association,
- A representative appointed by the SIFC Administrative, Professional, and Technical Employees,
- A representative appointed by the SIFC CUPE local, and
- A representative appointed by the out-of-scope employees.

APPENDIX B: DEFINITIONS AND EXAMPLES OF ATTITUDINAL HARASSMENT

Attitudinal harassment is defined as objectionable and unwanted behavior with no legitimate purpose that is not based on any prohibited ground under law but which:

- a) constitutes a clear pattern of mistreatment that would reasonably be perceived to be severe enough to create a hostile, intimidating, or humiliating environment for working or learning;
or
- b) constitutes the abuse of an unequal institutional power relationship or misuses authority.

The following situations, provided they are conducted in a professional manner with due regard for the dignity of all concerned, will not be defined as harassment or discrimination under this policy:

1. Situations that involve appropriate direction of the work force in compliance with existing Collective Agreements.
2. Situations that involve appropriate disciplinary action, either as permitted by Collective Agreements or through the student discipline process.
3. The correction, grading, assessment or appropriate criticism of any student's academic efforts, even if they are adverse or if the student does not agree.
4. Insistence on academic excellence or a reasonable quality of job performance.
5. The free academic study, discussion and debate of controversial topics in an academic environment, including topics that may be offensive to groups or individuals.
6. Practices required or permitted by law or contract, such as mandatory retirement based upon age, or practices and procedures that are reasonable and bona fide in the circumstances.
7. The statement of any opinion by a person who has been legitimately asked to state their opinion.
8. Conduct between persons based upon full mutual consent where no institutional authority relationship exists.

APPENDIX C: DEFINITION AND EXAMPLES OF SEXUAL HARASSMENT

For the purpose of the policy, sexual harassment is defined as including, but not necessarily being limited to:

1. Unwanted attention of a sexually-oriented nature made by a person who knows, or ought reasonably to know, that such attention is unwanted; and/or
2. Implied or expressed promise of reward for complying with or submitting to sexually-oriented request or advance; and/or
3. Implied or expressed threat or reprisal for not complying with or submitting to a sexually-oriented request or advance; and/or
4. Sexually-oriented or gender-based remarks and/or behaviour directed at an individual or group, which may reasonably be perceived to create a negative psychological and emotional environment for work and/or study.

Examples of sexual harassment include, but are not limited to, behaviour such as:

- Engaging in a course of vexatious comment, such as sexist jokes, remarks, innuendoes or taunting;
- Displaying without justifiable academic reason pornographic or other sexually offensive or derogatory pictures or material;
- Suggestive or demeaning remarks or other verbal abuse, including unnecessary questioning about or informing others of a person's sexual orientation;
- Unnecessary and unwelcome touching;
- Leering or other sexually-oriented gestures;
- Compromising invitations, including persistent and unwelcome requests for dates;
- Demands for sexual favours;
- Sexual assault.

Sexual harassment can be either psychological or physical, or it can be both. Two types of sexual harassment may occur simultaneously; quid pro quo and poisoned environment. Quid pro quo sexual harassment refers to a threat or promise of reward being linked to an unsolicited and unwelcome sexual advance. A poisoned environment is created when physical or verbal conduct focusing on the sex or sexual orientation of an individual or group results in an intimidating, hostile or offensive environment.

People have a wide range of responses to sexually-based discrimination. Some illustrations include, but are not limited to; reduced dignity, confusion, resentment and anger, tension, low self-esteem, and a transfer of guilt from the aggressor to the victim. Further, victims may feel compelled to leave their jobs. Sexual harassment leads to a poisoned environment for work or study. The sense of isolation, persecution and distrust spreads well beyond the initial victim to encompass a broader range of people.

Although sexual harassment has typically involved a female victim, males or females can be harassed. Furthermore, although sexual harassment has often been initiated by a person in a superior position, this is not always the case; people in subordinate or equal positions may also be initiators. Thus sexual harassment may occur in a variety of situations: harassment of a student by a student; or of a staff member by a student; or of a student by a staff member.

Sexual harassment may involve persons of the opposite sex or the same sex. In determining cases of sexual harassment, it is the impact of the alleged behaviour on the complainant that is considered. In Canadian courts and arbitrations, intentions have been deemed to be irrelevant.

APPENDIX D: DEFINITION AND EXAMPLES OF RACIAL HARASSMENT

In this policy, racial harassment refers to demeaning or discriminatory treatment of individuals or groups on the basis of their race.

Racial harassment can be manifested in personal threats, attacks and insults, and in the structure of social institutions. Racial harassment may be intended or unintended. It may be the result of activity or arrangements that set out to discriminate or harm, or it may result from inadvertent action or ignorance.

Examples:

- Slurs, taunts, gestures, name-calling or innuendoes that relate to a student's or employee's racial background, whether made directly or in the presence of other students or employees;
- Discriminatory treatment of members of a racial group in performance evaluation, grading or personal interaction;
- Unwelcome banter, teasing or jokes that are racially derogatory or that depict members of a racial group in a stereotypical and demeaning manner;
- Displaying racially offensive or racially derogatory materials, picture or graffiti stating or implying a hierarchy of racial groups in status or ability that demeans a particular group(s);
- Condescension or patronizing attitudes towards members of a particular racial group;
- Reluctance or refusal to work or study with another student or employee because of their racial background;
- Attributing a student's or employee's perceived deficiencies or inabilities to their membership in a racial group;
- Unwarranted assumptions or prejudices about a student's knowledge or interests based on his or her racial background.

Examples of practices that are not racist include:

- The academic or institutional study of different cultures or races;
- The academic or institutional study of the phenomenon of racism or racist groups;
- The academic study of materials that are racist in character, such as literature originating in racist times or racist cultures.

Protector Elder – Security

The parties to this Memorandum of Agreement recognize that the “University” is a unique First Nations-controlled educational institution whose objectives include service to First Nations communities and the promotion, preservation, protection and interpretation of First Nations histories, languages, cultures and artistic heritages using First Nations and non-First Nations ways of knowing and understanding. As well, the University is founded upon and operates with the guidance and blessing of First Nations Elders.

The parties agree that the following initiatives supersede the specified provisions of the Collective Agreement and are provided in order to improve the participation of First Nations Elders:

- 1) Human Resources may deem the Protector Elder – Security posting for positions as an “Elder Designated Position” in order to pursue the University’s First Nations cultures and values.
- 2) The University will undertake to fill the designated position from among the current employees who are CUPE members. Selection from among these candidates will be made on the basis of the Elder criteria and possessing the greatest seniority, required qualifications and efficiency demonstrated in an applicant’s current or previous position with the University.
- 3) If there is no qualified applicant, the University will consider, on the same basis as outlined above, the applications of employees who are Elders as per the criteria, before considering any external candidate.
- 4) If no suitable candidate is available internally, the University may appoint an external candidate from members of the First Nations Community.
- 5) The University may advertise at any time for appropriate candidates. Designated positions can be advertised at the same time as the internal posting.
- 6) A candidate appointed to a position will be granted, on date of appointment to the position, seniority as per Article 8.1. The candidate will be exempted from Article 15.1. However, he/she will be subject to a yearly review to ensure that he/she is physically and mentally able to perform the duties of the position. If he/she is clearly unable to perform the duties of the position, dismissal is not grievable. The candidate shall be entitled to all the rights and benefits of the Collective Agreement, except for bumping as per Article 17.5, dismissal as per Article 13.5 and retirement age as per Article 15.1.

- 7) Employees in designated positions may be provided with special training as the Director of Human Resources deems necessary.
- 8) When a designated position is vacated, it may or may not be posted as one of the designated positions.
- 9) Criteria of the Elder position shall be Elders who are currently involved in and are respected members of the traditional First Nations Community and are recognized as an Elder by other Elders within the First Nations community. Elders ensure that traditional values, principles and other teachings are passed along, and have provided instruction to help individuals live in the right way.

COMPENSATION FROM A THIRD PARTY

When an employee is involved in an accident or any other action that involves the possibility of reimbursement for time away from work, the employee shall immediately contact the Human Resources Department to advise of the facts.

The employer may make advances to the employee pending settlement of the claim against a third party, either from sick leave or from the disability plan. Such advances will be repaid to the employer when settlement is obtained from the third party minus a prorate share of any legal fees and disbursements incurred by the employee to recover a claim provided that the employee will, at the request of the employer, agree to initiate a review through the Law Society of the reasonableness of the solicitor’s account in the event the employer considers the account to be unreasonable.

Where the Human Resources Department becomes aware of the potential of a third party claim, pursuant to this clause the employee will be required to sign a written agreement to immediately repay when settlement is obtained.

Upon request of the employer, the employee will produce an affidavit setting forth the amount of compensation received from the third party.

Where the total time loss is less than ten (10) working days, the Human Resources Department may waive the right to a subrogated claim provided by this article.
